

Senate Beats Try to Remove Voting Rights

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate refused by a 73-18 vote today to remove the key voting rights section from the civil rights bill. Leaders then set their sights on passage of the measure tonight.

Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas told his colleagues it is clear a majority of the Senate wants to pass a bill "the heart of which will protect every citizen's voting rights."

Johnson went on to say he expected the Senate would be in session until a late hour tonight—"as late as a majority will stay to get action on this bill which has been before this body for eight weeks."

Efforts are being pushed, Johnson said, to work out "an interpretation" of the voting rights section that would be agreeable to all concerned.

This was a reference to complaints from Southerners that one provision would permit a federal judge to register Negroes right up to the day before election. They said this would discriminate against white voters who, under state laws, ordinarily would have to register at least 30 days in advance of the election, and in some states, as much as six months in advance.

Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-Ala.) made the effort to knock out the entire voting rights section.

The Senate's 73-18 rejection of this was by voting for a motion to table Ellender's move.

Ellender and other southern senators denounced this section as clearly unconstitutional. They argued it would ride roughshod over state election laws.

Under it, U.S. District Court judges, or referees appointed by them, could register qualified Negroes as voters in areas where systematic discrimination to bar them from the polls had been found.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen (R-Ill.), the Senate GOP leader, made the motion to table Ellender's move. Continued on Page Four

Match Plant to Locate at Spa

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A new $2,500,000 plant of a Universal Match Co. subsidiary will be located at Hot Springs, Ark.

The decision was announced yesterday by John L. Williamson, chairman of the board of National Rejectors, Inc., the subsidiary.

He said the plant is expected to be in operation in about eight months.

The Hot Springs City Council has set May 11 for an election on a proposed bond issue to finance construction of the plant.

National Rejectors builds coin handling equipment.

Sentenced for Having Two Wives

LEE, Mass. (AP)—A quiet, unassuming Lee High School teacher today was sentenced to nine months in the House of Correction for having two wives—each unaware of the other.

Joseph R. Dischino, 37, quickly appealed the District Court sentence imposed by Judge George Beauregard although he had pleaded guilty to the bigamy charge last Saturday. He was freed on $1,500 bail.

All three principals of the love triangle were together in the same room for the first time during today's court hearing.

Wives No. 1 and No. 2 sat on opposite sides of the small courtroom. They did not speak to each other.

Wife No. 1 married Dischino 15 years ago and is the mother of his three children.

There is one child by wife No. 2 whom he married nearly two years ago.

Dischino lived part of the week with wife No. 1 and the remainder with wife No. 2 in Lee. Neither wife knew of the other, although the homes are only eight miles apart.

Authorities said Dischino explained his absences from the respective homes by saying he had to stay overnight at a resort where he held a part-time job.

Powell Gets 3 Charges Dismissed

NEW YORK (AP)—The second of three income tax evasion charges against Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr. (D-NY) was dismissed today in U.S. District Court.

The Negro congressman remained on trial on the third charge.

Judge Frederick van Pelt Bryn dismissed one count of the indictment Tuesday and the second today.

The charge dismissed held that Powell attempted to evade payment of $1,399.69 in taxes owned by his wife, jazz pianist Hazel Scott, for 1951.

Judge Bryan said the government had not established a prima facie — factual — case and had failed to make a case on the issue involved.

Tuesday the judge dismissed a charge that Powell was guilty of turning for his wife and himself in 1952.

The remaining charge is that Powell helped prepare a false income tax return for Miss Scott in 1951.

The judge denied a defense motion for dismissal of this charge.

Presbyterian Pre-Easter Meet Starts

The ninth annual Pre-Easter meeting will begin Sunday at the First Presbyterian Church with services at 10:55 a.m. and 5 p.m.

The meeting will continue through Monday with service at 7:30 p.m.

The Junior and Adult Chorus, under the direction of Mrs. R. L. Gosnell will present special music at all of these services.

The nursery with Mrs. Tullis in charge will be opened during all services. Babies and young children may stay in the nursery.

On Thursday night the annual candle light communion service will be held.

Everyone is invited to attend these services.

47 Convicts Are Paroled

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The state Board of Pardons and Paroles yesterday approved paroles for 47 convicts and recommended executive clemency for nine others.

Among the parolees was General Lee Rumph, a Camden Negro sentenced in 1937 to seven years in prison for second degree murder in the fatal shooting of his wife. His wife was slain June 18, 1950, but he was not arrested until 1956.

The group is under the direction of Mrs. B. C. Hyatt and will be presented in a specialty act entitled "The Gay Nineties."

A variety of new jokes promises to add much laughter, spice and merriment from six cavoring men, composed of Harry Hawthorne, Guy Grigg, Andy Caldwell, Paul O'Neal, Tom Purvis and Arch Wylie.

The two-hour program, beginning at 8 o'clock follows:

Introduction of Minstrel Queen, President Henry Seaman; Opening Chorus, Entire Cast; Interlocutor, Dale Dunn;

End Men, Arch "Scrap Man" Wylie, Andy "Short Stuff" Caldwell, Paul "Eight Ball" O'Neal, Harry "Mishap" Hawthorne, Guy "Perpetual" Grigg, Tom "Slow Foot" Purvis.

Specialties: Homecoming, Deniece Heifer and Group; Rock-A-Bye Baby, Maxine White; Novelty Dance, Carol McKee, Barbara Barrong and Carolyn Sue McKee.

Asks Warning of Labor Changes

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Farm Placement Advisory Council of the state Employment Security Division wants the federal Labor Department to give 10 days advance notice of any quotas placed on importation of Mexican labor.

The Council met yesterday with ESD Administrator J. L. Bland to discuss the situation, then adopted a resolution calling for advance notice on quotas.

James P. Baker of West Helena reported the general feeling in Washington, where Congress is considering proposals to eliminate Mexican labor, is that the program should be cut out within five years unless the domestic labor supply is short.

Baker said he told a House Agriculture Subcommittee that Mexican labor is needed in Arkansas.

Advance notice of any quotas Bland said, would give Arkansas farmers a chance to prepare.

East Arkansas which uses most of the state's Mexican labor, had a large delegation at the meeting.

Bland also approved use of 275 Mexicans for berry picking on the R. E. L. Wilson farm at Wilson, but explained they also will be used for cotton chopping.

S. Africans in Boycott Object of a Purge

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Police and soldiers today launched a massive operation to purge strife-torn Nyanga Negro Township of Negroes maintaining a work boycott against the government's racial policies.

The two big African settlements—Nyanga East and Nyanga West—outside Cape Town were the scenes of bloody clashes earlier this week when soldiers and police made raids with clubs, guns and whips.

A strong security cordon surrounding Nyanga, keeping out everyone not part of the invasion force.

The South African government said soldiers began patrolling inside the settlement to give "protection to law-abiding natives," meaning those Negroes trying to go back to their jobs in nearby Cape Town.

Simultaneously, police began searching for Negroes the government charges have been inciting others to stay away from work and threatening violence to those who returned to their jobs.

The leader of the militant Pan-Africanist Congress, Robert Mangaliso Sobukwe, told a court in Johannesburg today that nonwhite Africans "have no moral obligation to obey" South African laws which are made by a white government.

Sobukwe and 22 other PAC leaders were charged with inciting Negroes to defy the laws which required nonwhites to carry pass identity cards. Demonstrations against these hated passes touched off the racial strife three weeks ago.

The government came under increasing pressure today from businessmen to make overtures to Negro leaders for an end to the racial crisis.

Some influential Afrikaner business leaders were reported considering an appeal to Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd to consult with nonwhite leaders in search of a compromise in the bitter, bloody conflict. Verwoerd and his National party are the political spokesmen for the Afrikaner community, the descendants of the country's early Dutch settlers.

Verwoerd so far has refused to treat with the Negro leaders.

The business leaders were motivated by a double pinch on the South African economy: the labor shortage resulting from Negro workers staying at home in protest against the government, and the effect on sales abroad of boycotts of South African goods and the threat of more foreign sanctions.

In open defiance of widespread public opinion and local appeals for moderation, the government announced a revival of the hated passes for nonwhites — The immediate issue that sparked off the racial rioting.

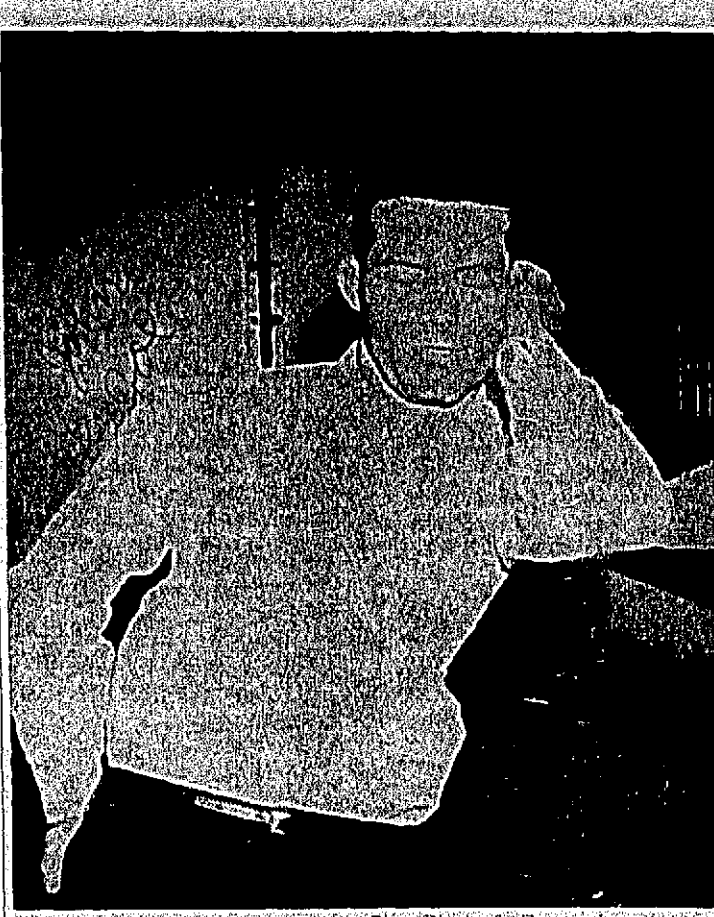

The government gave some indication of trying to make the pass system more palatable to the Negroes. Protest demonstrations against the identity papers three weeks ago drew police fire that killed 72 Negroes.

In the uproar that followed the slayings the government suspended its requirement that all Negroes moving about in such "white" areas as the nation's big cities must carry pass books giving their identification, place of work and other personal details.

Justice Minister F. C. Prinsloo said Wednesday, in announcing reinstatement of the pass requirement, that the government might be forced to do so.

Guards Get Forest Fires in Control

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National Guardsmen joined the fight against out of control forest fires which surrounded El Dorado last night while thousands of fire fighters battled about 50 other lumber fires over the state.
State Forester Fred Lang said the forest fire situation was at the "critical stage." He said new fires were breaking out faster than old ones could be extinguished.

El Dorado was not threatened,
but eight fires—the largest estimated at five miles wide and nine miles long—burned on all sides of the city.

Several rural homes in the El Dorado area were reported flooded by the fires and persons were reported evacuating dwellings near Parkers Chapel southwest of El Dorado.

Fires came within five miles of El Dorado and one approached the Lion Oil Co. refinery, but it was reported not in danger.

The guard unit, a tank company, sent its men and equipment to fight the largest El Dorado area fire. Lumber companies and other industries added men and equipment to the firefighting force.

Plumes fanned by high winds leaped through the tops of 30 and 40 foot trees.

Lang said 11 fires covered some 60,000 acres in the Salem area, where nine houses have been destroyed.

Other forestry officials reported 16 fires burning near Hardy, 13 near Mountain View and nine around Heber Springs, all in northern Arkansas. Some buildings also have been destroyed in the Hardy area.

Other fires were reported at Camp Robinson near Little Rock and in the Fordyce, Warren, Crasselt, Delight, Malvern, Sheridan, Thornton, Slamps and Childester areas.
Lang said "almost tinder dry"

Thomason is recovering from

BY FAITH BALDWIN

"Experience, maybe?" Mark
asked.
"No. Could it be?" she hesi-

"That's an odd comment, as if he asked, "If you were Pam, to whom would you go for help?"

"Oh—to Steve, that's all right,

Mark's eyebrows nearly shot off his forehead. "How's that,

"That's where the trouble is,
isn't it?"

Mark agreed reasonably. "Of course, but Harry is himself so emotionally involved—how could you expect him to straighten her out?"

"Cards on the table, both hands," Rose answered stubbornly. "They were sitting in the living room, waiting for Debbie to complete her complicated toilets. 'What he knows, feels,
wants and hopes—what she does.
Oh, sure, they can go to doctors, ministers, lawyers—you, for example.'"

"That would be a nice kettle of Blackstone, I'm their lawyer."
"It could," Mark contradicted her gravely, "for terrible things can happen to people."

She thought about that. Then

Dr. Towne, except socially. She could not imagine herself going to him in deep trouble—not that he wouldn't be kind, practical and offer excellent advice. But to her, something was lacking in him.

"Experience, maybe?" Mark

"No. Could it be?" she hesi-

"That's an odd comment, as if sense."

In my day, Rose often thought now, feeling 80, clergymen didn't go in for pupil opinions on everything from zoning to local,
national and international poli-

Mark knew how she felt; he

IN A FULL-SIZE WAGON! You'd never know it by looking, but this is America's lowest-priced full-size wagon! Its 97 cubic feet of loadspace is the biggest in its field. Extra-wide rear gates open easily, with one hand, to make loading a cinch. And this Ford Ranch Wagon is built for people. You get a foam-padded front seat, plus leg, hip and head room to spare. And it's built for savings, too. It thrives on low-cost regular gas. A Full-Flow oil filter lets you go 4,000 miles without an oil change. The aluminized muffler normally lasts twice as long as conventional types. And its Diamond Laurel Finish never needs waxing.

DOROTHY DIX

Coming of Baby Could Be Blessing

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I need your help. The future of three people and possibly more depends on your answer. I am a student at a local university. Although only 20, I felt I was ready for marriage. I married a girl three years my elder recently and while she did not have the best reputation on campus, I loved her dearly.

The other night when I came home from the library, I found one of my fraternity brothers with her. They said they were in love and my wife asked for a divorce. She recently told me she was pregnant. Now I'm not sure whether the baby is mine. Mixed-up.

Dear Mixed-up: It's your wife, not you, who is mixed-up. No matter how much she wants a divorce, postpone your decision until after the baby is born. Meanwhile, treat her with all the consideration due a mother-to-be. The coming of her baby may change the entire picture—for the better.

Dear Dorothy Dix:

I am 16 years old and in need

Mrs. John McLaughlin.

Mrs. George Newbern of Marianna is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Newbern Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Whitman and Edwina went to Alexandria, La., Tuesday, for the funeral of his mother, Mrs. E. B. Whitman.

61st job. Employers say I'm too young. I have an application in a five-and-ten-cent store. I put an application in the high school guidance office but I never seem to get anywhere. What am I to do?—M.A.G.

Dear M.A.G.: Don't give up! Remember W. E. Hickson's "If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." But you'll never find a job worth having unless you know what you want before you start looking. Ask the counselor at your high school guidance office to help you. I'm sending you my leaflet on "That First Job."

Dear Dorothy Dix: My husband used to be a vigorous, active man. Since he became 50, he spends his spare time reading or watching television, and ignores me almost entirely. When I try to discuss things with him he becomes irritable. I still want fun, excitement and—yes—love. What can I do?—Jenny

Dear Jenny: Many men go through such spells at that time of life. Try to get him to go to a doctor, preferably one with a good understanding of psychology. There's probably a lot of liveliness in him if he can be persuaded it's there.

Send your problem to DOROTHY DIX. Be sure to enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope, and address her in care of this newspaper.

Nicklaus and Snead Ride Hot Streaks

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — Sam Snead and the 20-year-old U.S. amateur champion, Jackie Nicklaus, rode the hottest streaks into today's opening round of the 24th Masters Golf Tournament.

A field of 84—67 professionals and 17 amateurs — starts the four-day, 72-hole test over the Augusta National course.

Snead warmed up for a go at his fourth Masters title by winning an inaugural preliminary tournament. He's been playing like a man on a rampage.

Nicklaus, from Columbus, Ohio, rocked the game's elite with a brilliant final practice round of 66, six under par. He pulled his way over the massive, 6,850-yard course as if it were a plaything and announced afterward: "I'm not here for the amateur prize—I want to win the tournament."

For those who try to handicap a golf tournament the way they would a horse race, Snead and Nicklaus are high in favor.

Arnold Palmer is the advance favorite at odds of 6-1. The year's leading money winner with $28,000-plus and four tournament victories on his belt, the young, bull-like pro from Ligonier, Pa., is the solid pick of most players and spectators.

Behind Palmer in favoritism is Ken Venturi, the popular San Francisco youngster who has been a sentimental choice since he led the Masters crown slip away in 1956. Venturi is an 8-1 bet, followed by Snead and Cary Middlecoff, the latter experimenting with a new driver.

Williams Is Also Looking for Answer

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. (AP)—Ted Williams still is looking for the answer to the question everyone is asking—can a throbbing neck and aging bones carry him through another season as a Boston Red Sox regular?

"The neck is neither better nor worse," the 41-year-old slugger said today. "I still don't know what I'm going to do this year."

If hard work will prolong the major league career of the colorful Williams who will mark his 21st season next month, Ted could hang up his "business as usual" shingle in left field right now.

Always as sternly devoted to conditioning as he is to base hits, Williams never has toiled longer or more willingly than this spring.

But the neck ailment, which dragged Williams from the lofty heights of American League batting championships in 1957 (.388) and '58 (.328) to .254 last season, persists. Ted currently is hitting .259 after appearing in 14 of Boston's 21 exhibition games. And his age is plaguing him in the form of the worst weight problem he's ever faced.

Hendrix a Winner

Senate Beats

amendment.
Dirksen said that if the voting referee section was eliminated, "The bill would be reduced in effect to a point where in many respects it would be meaningless."

The Dixie forces had anticipated defeat of Ellender's motion and already had opened fire on a provision of the voting rights section they contend would discriminate against white voters.

It would permit provisional voting by Negroes whose attempts to register under the bill had not been ruled on by election time.

Sen. Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) protested this would allow federal courts to register Negroes after the registration books had been closed by state law to white citizens.

Dirksen agreed there was some substance to southern arguments against this, and indicated some amendment might find favor with him.

The GOP leader said before the start of today's senate session that he had discussed the issue with Deputy Atty. Gen. Lawrence E. Walsh.

"It is under consideration," he said.

Later Dirksen conferred with Russell and Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas in an apparent effort to work out a compromise.

Russell said he doesn't know of a single state that does not require voters to be registered at least 30 days before an election. In many states, he said, they must be registered six months in advance.

The Senate, which rejected three proposed changes Wednesday, votes today on a motion by Sen. Allen U. Ellender (D-La.) to strike out the bill's key provision.

This provides that federal court judges, or referees named by them can register qualified Negroes in areas where systematic discrimination against the minority groups has been found.

All Clubs Are Trying to Trade for a Pennant

By JIM KENSIL

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Chicago White Sox traded for Gene Freese and Minnie Minoso in a bid to retain the American League pennant. The New York Yankees acquired Roger Maris in a move to regain the AL title. The Cleveland Indians dealt for Bubba Phillips and bought Bob Hale to try and win that same championship.

And brother, those winter deals looked good Wednesday in spring training games.

Here's what happened as the White Sox, Indians and Yankees (they finished in that order in 1959) turned in close exhibition victories.

Freese and Minoso had two of the three hits that produced the White Sox' wins in a 2-0 victory over the Detroit Tigers at Saratoga.

Maris had four hits, including the game-breaker in the Yankees' 11th-inning rally that nipped the Baltimore Orioles 4-3 at St. Petersburg.

Hale delivered a bases-loaded double and Phillips walked to force in the winning run as the Indians scored four times in the ninth and defeated the Chicago Cubs 10-9 at Tucson.

In other games Wednesday, the Milwaukee Braves defeated the Cincinnati Reds 3-2 in 12 innings at Jacksonville, the St. Louis Cardinals outdid the Boston Red Sox 13-10 at St. Louis, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped the San Francisco Giants 14-10 at Phoenix, and the Pittsburgh Pirates shaded the Philadelphia Phillies 7-6 in 10 innings at Fort Myers. Kansas City and Washington were idle.

Showdown in Pro Cage Fight Set Tonight

By JIM VAN VALKENBURG

Associated Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The St. Louis Hawks again have their backs to the wall but—maybe because they've been there before—they feel certain that they can square pro basketball's world series with the Boston Celtics tonight.

"We didn't panic when Minneapolis had us down 3-2," said Coach Easy Ed Macauley. "We'll have to reach down and come up with another big one. We've done it before." The Celtics by winning tonight can wrap up their third National Basketball Assn. title in the past four seasons. A St. Louis victory would force a deciding seventh game in Boston Saturday afternoon.

IT FINALLY HAPPENED—Ever wait at a drawbridge while another bridge went by? Amazed motorists waiting to cross the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge linking New Jersey and Pennsylvania saw a 533-foot bridge section by go. The bridge was moved down the Delaware River.

FIRST OUT OF RUSSIA SINCE 1926—Mrs. George W. Cassady of Williamsport, Pa., examines a pair of Russian huskies, reportedly the first allowed out of the Soviet Union since 1926. Mrs. Cassady received the dogs after writing to the Soviet Embassy in Washington.

That Weight Problem May Be Mental

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "I tried crash diets, smash diets, blitz diets—all kinds of diets. But I would lose five pounds and then gain seven back. I never made any progress until I realized that my weight problem was mental."

This was the testimony of Dorcas Michaels, a striking blonde with a brilliant future predicted by her studio—now, but there were times when it looked as if she might blow a golden opportunity.

"I was a compulsive eater," she confessed. "I read that Ingrid Bergman did the same thing I did. I'd starve myself on fruit and cottage cheese all day. But I was a midnight icebox raider."

"I was up to 152 pounds when hid behind peasant blouses and pleated skirts.

"When I was signed by 20th Century-Fox, I weighed 135. I could slim down between pictures. But when I had the excitement of starting a picture, I'd start eating. It was nothing for me to eat two pounds of chocolates at one sitting."

Naturally, the studio got upset. "Buddy Adler told me I gave him the most trouble of anyone outside of Diane Varsi. I got fat before pictures started. I wouldn't show up at the studio for four months at a time. I dressed like a beatnik and acted kooky."

The climax came after the death of her father a year ago. She describes him as a strong figure who was always pushing her into a career. With him gone, she was just. She sought psychological analysis.

Without elaborating on the treatment, she commented that analysis completely changed her life. She has a new respect for her work. She is down to a svelte 115 pounds. The studio was impressed.

enough to give her a lead with Alan Ladd in the strike-postponed "One Foot in Hell."

"I'm convinced that most overweight problems stem from mental causes," she concluded. "But most people who lose weight on diets gain it back because they don't know the reasons why they crave food. Generally it is because of some frustration in their lives."

Feet Broken in

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP) — Dick Straight, who has been three days on the road hiking to Chicago, figures his feet are now well broken in for the rest of his projected 1,400-mile stroll.

Straight started from Fort Myers Sunday. As he completed the first 100 miles Tuesday, he said he plans to hike 30 miles a day or better henceforth.

The 26-year-old salesman is heading north to discuss a grievance with the head office of the Fort Myers store which employed him.

State Group Against Few Proposals

By GORDON BROWN
WASHINGTON (AP) — Arkansas was the only state whose delegation to the White House youth conference took the open position it could not accept and endorse all proposals and recommendations coming out of the meeting.

Delegates from several other Southern states privately endorsed the Arkansas action and added that when the recommendations reach their states in a week or so they will be screened case may be.

Some said later it would have been a good idea for Southern states to have gotten together and entered strong dissents in the groups where the recommendations were drafted.

The Arkansas delegates emphasized they weren't trying to disrupt the conference machinery. They said they thought a lot of good would come out of the sessions.

But, they said, they just couldn't be in the position of returning home amid a widespread belief they had accepted some recommendations people of the state wouldn't approve.

They knew in advance there would be some resolutions relating to integration and racial matters which wouldn't be popular at home.

Hence the declaration of position.

Actually, the action was inspired by members of the Arkansas Congressional delegation who suggested the delegates might be in an untenable position if some strong integration resolutions came out of the conference.

One of the conference laughs came from a remark by Joel Anderson, 18, a delegate from Swifton, Ark.

At the delegation meeting he urged that the steering committee set up should include a member of the state's youth delegation.

"After all," he said, "we are your problem, you know."

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark) also was in good form at the breakfast meeting of the conference delegates.

It fell to his lot to introduce the other Arkansas Congressmen.

Of Rep. James Trimble (D) he said:

"He does an awful lot of good for the state. In fact, if I'm not pretty careful he's going to have the Arkansas River project built while I'm still tied up on other matters."

And in presenting Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark), McClellan said: "I'm getting so I don't like Oren. You know I had an awfully good racket going. I was conducting big hearings and getting all the headlines. Then Oren came along with an investigation of his own and practically crowded me out of the papers. I may never forgive him."

He also referred to the Senate as "the greatest—and longest—deliberative body in the world."

Arkansas' diamond mine at Murfreesboro came in for some advertising at the breakfast.

Mrs. Howard Miller, an owner of the mine, distributed as favors realistic looking replicas of the "Star of Arkansas," one of the large diamonds found at the mine.

Texarkana, Tex. Votes for Manager

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP) — A proposed change to a city manager form of government was approved by a narrow margin on the basis of unofficial returns from a special election here yesterday.

A total of 2,641 residents voted for the change; 2,609 against it, a difference of 32 votes.

Former Mayor William V. Brown Sr., leader of those advocating retention of the mayor-council form, said he would wait until the vote was officially certified before deciding whether there would be contest.

More than 5,200 persons voted out of some 10,000 qualified in this city of approximately 30,000 population.

The election did not affect Texarkana, Ark., which has the mayor-council plan of government.

Sues for $25,000 Gets Only $1,000

EL DORADO, Ark. (AP) — U.S. District Judge J. Smith Henley yesterday directed a federal court jury to award $1 as nominal damages to a real estate operator who had sued for $25,000 because he said a listing was left out of a telephone directory.

Rufus Buercklin said Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. omitted the name of his Acme Realty Co. from the regular section of a directory published last December.

Acme was listed in the classified section — the yellow pages — of the directory.

Crystal Hill, a settlement also known as Pyattsville about 10 miles north of Little Rock on the Arkansas River, was one of the early river crossings because the Pyatt family operated a type of barge service there.

Girl Watching Popular in Argentina

BY BRIAN BELL

Buenos Aires, Argentina (AP)—If it's a good day in Buenos Aires—or better yet if a stiff breeze is blowing—it's pesos to pastries you'll find a good percentage of the male population strolling on the corner watching the girls go by.

It's the favorite outdoor sport. Being somewhat of a sport ourselves, we decided to do an on-the-spot street interview.

"Pardon me, sir. I saw you watching the girls and I wonder if you would answer a few questions for the press."

"Si, señor. I'll be delighted. But move over a little please. You're blocking the view. Ah, that's fine."

"Your name please?"

"Juan Casanova."

"Mr. Casanova could you give us an idea of your duties at this corner. I mean a few simple rules for girl-watching?"

"Certainly, señor. First you have to find a spot with an unobstructed view. Then you keep your eyes opened, swing your head quickly from side to side until you spot a subject. The subject is then kept in observation until its quality is judged. If acceptable the subject is viewed thoroughly up and down approaching it especially worth, viewing may continue after the subject has passed. Often back viewing, as it is known in the trade, is very rewarding. However, it is dangerous, especially for an inexperienced watcher, for another subject may be missed. Veterans glance quickly down the street to be sure nothing good is coming then and only then they risk back viewing."

"I've been noticing that you come to this corner regularly. Do all of you have favorite spots?"

"Well, some spots are better than others. I like this one because there's always a nice breeze at the corner."

"What are your hours?"

"Well, technically I'm always on duty whenever I'm in the street. The sport can be played walking too, although not as effectively as standing."

"Is it permissible to speak to the girls, subjects?"

"Of course, señor! It is not possible you have not heard of the pipapo?"

"No, I don't believe so."

"Ah, the pipapo is the true art. It is the compliment to her beauty or a flirtatious remark."

"What do you usually say?"

"The simplest pipapos are 'How beautiful!' or 'Señorita, what eyes!' or for the more daring 'What a figure!' But real experts can breathe sonatas into a subject's ear. For more elaborate pipapos, of course, one must follow the subject for some blocks talking quietly to her. Then you can say, for example: 'Ah, señorita, I have finally found you. For months I have been waiting, lonely on this corner until today you walked by and suddenly there was sunshine. Your hair is like spun gold. Your eyes like a deep pool. Your legs—'

"You seem to enjoy the sport."

"Si, señor! What sport could offer more—fresh air, sunshine, challenge, competition, suspense—excuse me, señor. Ah, señorita, what a face! It is like a painting by Spanish master. Your lips are like two rose buds that—"

Lake Searched for Two Bodies

SARDIS, Miss., (AP)— Search parties fanned out over Sardis Lake today in a hunt for two Memphis fishermen who put out on the lake at noon yesterday and did not return.

Missing were Jake Silverstein, 54, and William Lee Wilson, 56.

The search continued until late last night and resumed at dawn today.

The pair left the Holiday Lodge docks and crossed the choppy lake to fish in a creek. A companion in another boat said the rough water forced him to turn back. He said he shouted to the two men to turn back also but they kept going.

Chicot county got its name from Point Chicot on the Mississippi River.

In January, 1939 the first of the annual live-broiler shows was held in Rogers, Ark. to primarily advertise that Benton County produced several million young chickens that year.

Faubus Silent on Attack of Bennett

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Gov. Orval Faubus today declined comment on latest complaints about state taxation fired by his gubernatorial opponent, Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett.

"I'm not in the mood to argue with Bruce every day for the next four months," Faubus told a news conference.

"Why should I help him run his campaign?"

Bennett charged yesterday that the state Revenue Department gives airlines a 40 per cent write-off in computing the value of property for assessment purposes.

The attorney general has made a series of charges that administrative tax policies favor big business.

Revenue Commissioner J. Orville Cheney denied a write-off was permitted, but declined to let newsmen see airline assessment figures on grounds they were not public records.

Faubus said it was his opinion that the records were public, but that Cheney and Revenue Department attorneys would have to make the final decision.

"Of course we might ask the attorney general for an opinion on whether the records are public," the governor said with a laugh.

Later, Faubus said he had no connection with a Louisiana states rights group headed by Kent Colclough of New Orleans.

Colclough's organization, the Independent American Federation of States Parties, plan a Little Rock meeting May 6-7. Faubus said he had declined an invitation to address the meeting.

"I met Colclough once when he came here as I met anyone who comes into this office if I have time," Faubus said.

"But I have no connection with Colclough and that should make it self-evident that I am not sponsoring any of his activities — either public meetings or otherwise."

Courtney said in announcing the Little Rock meeting that he hoped Faubus would speak.

Yesterday, Courtney announced another states rights meeting will be held at Shreveport, La. June 24, at which Associate Justice John Johnson of the Arkansas Supreme Court will speak.

Faubus indicated he did not plan to attend this latter meeting. Asked for comment on the Wisconsin primary which saw Sen. John Kennedy (D-Mass.) forge ahead of Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) Faubus said he thought the voting was "indecisive."

He doubted the primary results would have any effect on Arkansas.

Goodwill Tour

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Some 150 persons leave today on the Little Rock Chamber of Commerce's annual goodwill tour, which visits Houston, Tex., this year.

The group will spend tomorrow and Friday touring Houston and the surrounding area before returning to Little Rock Saturday.

Members of the group are from the Little Rock, North Little Rock and Jacksonville Chambers.

The delegation is traveling by train.
